DEDICATION

This year the yearbook staff would like to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Cartee, a former custodian, whom we all liked very much. We have all appreciated having him as a friend and a pal.

IN MEMORIAL

Linnea Partin

A perfect day is coming by and by,
A day of peace and freedom from all care,
With all the good for which our spirits sigh,
And not a cloud to dim its sky so fair.

How little then the trials of life will seem,
How light, the heavy burdens we have borne;
The deepest sorrow, like a passing dream,
Will be forgotten in that blessed morn.

CLASS

We, John Allan, Glen Miller, and Lee Olson, do will and bequeath our great wrestling ability to Brooks Graves, Alvin Allen, Kent Lierman, and Larry Dietrich.

I, Ronald Allan, do will and bequeath all my managing abilities to the wrestling team.

I, Gary Allen, do will and bequeath my seat at the front of the English class to anyone who wants a better view of the English teacher.

I, Phillip Aslett, do will and bequeath my ability to sleep in Government class to my cousin Dennis Aslett in hopes that he will carry out my fine idea.

I, Dick Baker, do will and bequeath to Fred Haman my ability to talk to Twin Falls policemen out of giving me a ticket because he is really going to need it.

I, Jim Bever do will and bequeath my shooting ability to anyone who doesn't like Physics teachers.

I, Norma Boss, do will and bequeath all the fun I had in my senior year to Sally Jones.

I, Phyllis Brake, do will and bequeath my ability to cause trouble without being caught to my sister Charlotte in hopes that she will make as good use of it as I did.

We, Delores Butts, Hazel Hunt, Jaunita Sligar, and Shirley Taylor, do will and bequeath our graduation ideas for a party to any juniors fool enough to try them.

I, Pat Callen, do will and bequeath my abilities to go on without unjust faith and succeed in graduating to all the students.

We, Byron Carrier, Roger Hays, Bob Rude, and Ray Walden, do will and bequeath our persuasion of the teachers to present us with a deserving four-day vacation to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Dan Carter, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with Mrs. Rowland to Terry Theener and Mark Schroeder in hopes that they have as much fun as I did.

I, Lynn Chandler, do will and bequeath my bad habits to anyone who is daring enough to use them in hopes that they will have as much fun as I had with them.

I, Steve Chandler, do will and bequeath my trombone to anyone who wants to become a junk collector.

I, Gary Dougherty, do will and bequeath my ability to stay calm when no one turns in their yearbook deadlines to Bev Park, SHE'LL NEED IT.

I, Bob Fessenden, do will and bequeath to any Junior who could stand it, my good looks.

I, Patricia Fields, do will and bequeath all my walking power to Loretta Slatter and Donna Denton in hopes that they will get home quicker.

I, Bonnie Flora, do will and bequeath my neck scarf to anyone who needs it.

I, Mike Graves, do will and bequeath Filer High School to next year's bonfire committee.

I, David Hardesty, do will and bequeath my ability to finally get to play a little basketball to Ron Wyatt and Mark Schroeder in hopes that they will get to play a little too.

I, Tom Hofland, do will and bequeath all the fun I've had to my brothers.

I, Charles Honstein, do will and bequeath all of my brainpower to any junior who doesn't want to graduate.

I, Kathy Huston, do will and bequeath TFF's constitution to the deserving pages who have earned it: Vicki Cobb, Linda Sharp, Colleen Bingham, and Carla Tidwell as a new page.

I, Lindsay Johnson, do will and bequeath all of the "fun" and "enjoyment" of basketball to Mard S. and Ron W. next year.

I, Raymond Joslin being of sound mind and body, do will and bequeath all the fun I have had tearing up Ag. shop equipment to the Theener boys in hopes that they will drive Mr. Hall to destruction.

I, John Kauffman, do will and bequeath my ability to go steady with one girl in high school for three years to Clark, 'cause I don't think he can.

I, Mark Lierman, do will and bequeath my ability to stay in government class to all future students, especially to anyone whose dad is on the school board.

I, Linda Kohntopp, do will and bequeath all the fun and silent times to Colleen Bingham & Bev Parks; also a good battery to any couple who needs one.

WILL

I, Dennis Mai, do will and bequeath my ability to stay out of trouble to the boys in the junior class. They'll need it.

I, Merry Ann Malone, do will and bequeath my long hair to Connie Stroud, who will someday like to have it.

I, Carol Molsee, do will and bequeath my classes to any junior who wants to take six solids in his or her senior year.

I, Vicki Nelson, do will and bequeath my quietness to Eileen Lanting in hopes she will use it.

I, Janet Parish, do will and bequeath the TFF ability to get caught when you're supposed to and to be sneaky to Linda Sharp and Vicki Cobb, because they're going to need it, to carry on the TRADITION.

I, Ed Pastoor, do will and bequeath the sense that I have FINALLY gained through 13 years of school.

I, Joan Patterson, do will and bequeath the fun and work in office to anyone who likes to run errands.

I, Gordon Pedrow, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Moran to anyone who needs it.

I. Linda Peters, do will and bequeath all the trouble with my car in Twin Falls, to Eileen Lanting in hopes she has just as much fun.

I, Cathy Pitchford, do will and bequeath all my fun and good times to my sister Brenda, that she might enjoy high school as much as I did.

I, Janet Pubanz, do will and bequeath all my good times in FHS and in Twin to Louise Schmidt in hopes she has as much fun as I did.

I, Karla Pubanz, do will and bequeath my small foreign-made Vauzhall to Johnny Mai. It should be a perfect match.

I, Lloyd Puckett, do will and bequeath my desk to the window and the heater to any junior who wants to be warm in the winter and cool in the spring.

I, Kenneth Reinke, do will and bequeath the ability to get along with Mr. Ray better than I did to anyone.

I, Susan Ruszler, do will and bequeath my can of red spray paint to Vicki Cobb, Linda Sharp, and my sister Becky in hopes that they will use their artistic ability and carry out TFF's tradition of always getting caught by the right people.

I, Loyd Saenger, do will and bequeath my great ability to play basketball to Ron Wyatt and Mark Schroder to the Theener boys and Walt Taylor all my wild parties in hopes that they don't get caught.

I, Judy Schiffler, do will and bequeath my ability to get into embarrassing situations at the hospital to Gloria Lassen.

I, Steve Sharp, do will and bequeath my ability in sports, my good attitudes, love with the girls, my parking place (unknown to everyone), and the best of luck with Mrs. James to Ron Wyatt & Mark Schroder.

I, Mary Sheperd, do will and bequeath all the fun and misery of high school to my brothers, Steve and Doug.

I, Mike Sheridan, do will and bequeath my seats in all my classes to the other unlucky suckers, whoever they may be.

I, Rick Storrs, do will and bequeath my ability to sleep in government and physics to anyone who is tired.

I, Stephen Taylor, do will and bequeath my ability to control my temper to Coach Musser in hopes it will help him as much as it did me.

I, John Tolk, do will and bequeath my ability to ride a motorcycle to Russel Denton, as he needs all the ability he can get.

I, Melba Ulrich, do will and bequeath my nickname, "Malbouna" to anyone who can spell it.

I, Mary Werner, do will and bequeath my government book to Tom Chandler in hopes that he gets more out of it than I did.

I, Susan Wolf, do will and bequeath all my good times as a senior to Wilma Dobbs in hopes that she will have as much fun as I did.

I, Nina Wright, do will and bequeath my ratty pom poms to Penny, Jan, and Karen in hopes that they might talk the students into buying them some new ones.

I, Roy Wright, do will and bequeath my trumpet playing ability to those lousy 2nd and 3rds that they might be as good as me someday.

COACHES

Jim Myers, Karl Elliot, Lee Bartlett, Al Musser

Karl Elliot, head football, wrestling, and track coach, came to Filer in 1963. While at Filer, Karl has helped advance Filer's athletic programs to the heights they now are. Congratulations coach.

Jim Myers, assistant football and Jr. Varsity coach, has been at Filer for two years. He has been a big help to the teams.

Lee Bartlett, Jr. Varsity football coach, has helped Filer's varsity teams by helping the younger players. Lee has worked with the teams a number of years now.

Al Musser, assistant football and varsity basketball coach, is the newest member of the Filer coaching staff. Coach Musser moved to Filer this year and made a big impression on all at Filer.

APPRECIATION

We, the members of the 1966 Wildcat staff, would like to take this space to extend our sincere thanks to Mr. Kious, our terrific advisor--to Mr. Pettygrove and Mr. Morita, our capable photographers--to the Magic Valley merchants--and last but not least to the students and administration of Filer High School.

May this book bring long and happy memories.
